Adverting to the Official Memorandum No M 8815-914/GM 23-51-2 dated 11-8-1951 issuing instructions for the celebration of the Independence Day during the current year on 15-8-1951, I write to state that arrangements were made as usual to celebrate the flag hoisting function, with the co-operation of police, Boys Scouts, Girl Guides, N C C Corps, Rastriya Sevaal and children of organizations like Vanitha Sadan Makkalakoota etc. The co-operation of the Educational Officers of Secondary Schools and University was also enlisted. The public were also invited through announcements in the local papers and through loud-speaker arrangements fitted up to the Propaganda van of the Municipality. Arrangements were also made for the conduct of a public meeting in Town Hall premises in the evening.

A large gathering had assembled both in the morning and the evening and the functions went off very successfully.

Arrangements were also made to serve a sweet dish to the persons fed at His Highness' Poor Feeding Centre and also at the Beggars Home.

The Council approved of an expenditure of Rs 100/- being incurred in this connection out of the provision made under 'Fairs and Festivals'.

In enclosing a copy of the resolution of the Council ~~for obtained by circulation~~ in this behalf, I request you kindly to obtain orders of Government sanctioning the incurring of the above expenditure of Rs 100/- out of the provision under 'Fairs and Festivals' in the Budget Estimates
